

Built Environment Action Register: Architect / Engineer / Project Manager, Afghanistan

ARCHITECT / ENGINEER / PROJECT MANAGER

ROLE

- Architect / Engineer / Project Manager required to lead Article 25 Team in Kabul, Afghanistan.
- Working across Article 25 offices, government departments and NGOs to promote best practice.
- Providing leadership and advice in a programme requiring the following experience:
 - Procurement: Understanding of the technical, financial and evaluation processes of tendering construction projects
 - Team Management: Experience of leading teams and understanding the roles and responsibilities of different disciplines
 - Technical background in design and construction, particularly school construction, earthquake resistance and quality control.
 - Strong communication skills to effectively promote best practice among team members and other agencies.
 - Experience of large scale or government projects advantageous.

REQUIREMENTS

- Contract Administration qualification and experience.
- English speaking.
- Dari and Pashto advantageous but not essential.
- Experience working in Afghanistan and in International Development essential.
- Strong observational skills in working with contract documents and undertaking site inspections.
- Effective communicator / educator.

Article 25 is an NGO team of construction professionals designing built solutions in post-disaster and post-war locations throughout the world. Projects include:

- Evaluation of school construction in Afghanistan for the Government of Afghanistan.
- Post-earthquake school reconstruction, Haiti.
- Earthquake resistant housing construction, Pakistan.
- Conservation based masterplanning in the Gola Forest, Eastern Sierra Leone.
- Prototype Child Friendly School, Sierra Leone.

Information

- Start date: September / October in London, then Kabul.
- Duration: 12 months minimum.
- Salary: Dependent on experience.

Contact

- Submit a CV, covering letter and examples of relevant work to Mark Hamblett at Article 25.
- Email: recruitment@article-25.org

Deadline: Apply immediately for consideration.