

Article 25 Volunteer Graphic Designer (or Architectural Assistant with strong graphic skills)

Article 25 is an international development charity based in central London delivering construction projects around the world. As the UK's leading architectural aid charity we design, manage and deliver sustainable building solutions in areas affected by disaster, poverty and need.

We believe that by making our skills and designs available where they are most needed, but rarely available, we can make a real difference in helping communities meet their basic needs and create a healthier society.

We are seeking a motivated Volunteer Graphic Designer (or Volunteer Architectural Assistant with strong graphic skills) who has a passion for international development to provide assistance to the design and fundraising teams. This is an exciting opportunity for a keen and energetic individual who is looking for valuable experience in this field. You will be able to make a genuine creative contribution and take ownership of projects. There will be an opportunity to go on a fieldtrip to temporarily work in our Yangon office to work together with a Burmese graphic designer.
